

Spirituality and Palliative Care: An Interdisciplinary Approach to the End of Life

featured speaker

Pippa Hall, MD

Department of Family Medicine
University of Ottawa

Friday, November 13, 2009
Conrad Grebel University College
Great Hall

No charge
Registration required

9am-11:30pm

Pippa Hall, MD

Caring at the End of Life: Are Spiritual Care and Medical Care Compatible?

This lecture will focus on the contribution of spiritual care to end of life care and how it can be integrated into a medical model of care.

1:00 - 3:00pm

Peter Barnes, D.Min.;
Susan Brajtman, RN, PhD;
Pippa Hall, MD

An Interdisciplinary Model for End of Life Care

This interactive and engaging presentation will highlight the importance of spirituality as a component of holistic care and will engage participants in a model for interprofessional education and practice.

ADMISSION IS FREE

Register online at grebel.uwaterloo.ca/sa or call 519-885-0220 x24264 or email infocguc@uwaterloo.ca

Sponsored by
The RBJ Schlegel-UW Research Institute for Aging
Spirituality and Aging Program
Conrad Grebel University College
University of Waterloo
140 Westmount Rd. N Waterloo, ON N2L 3G6

